

Week Eight: The Pilgrim's Progress Book Club

To read this week....

Chapter Thirteen: Christian, Hopeful, and the Shepherds 139

Chapter Fourteen: Adventures on the Enchanted Ground 135

Discussion Questions

1. Discuss Ignorance's character. He says in chapter thirteen, "I know you not; be content to follow the religion of your country, and I will follow the religion of mine." What do you think he means by that? More specifically, what is wrong with his thinking?
2. What do you think Christian means when he says to Hopeful, "When their minds are set upon their lusts, they will have them whatever the cost?"
3. I think my favorite passage so far, is this brief thought from Hopeful in chapter fourteen. "Then I asked him further, how I must make my supplication to Him? And he said, Go, and thou shalt find Him upon a mercy-seat, where He sits all the year long, to give pardon and forgiveness to them that come." What about God does this short passage tell us?
4. What in these two chapters stood out to you the most? How has your faith been challenged and/or encouraged by the reading thus far?

Memory Verse

"Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. Though you do not know see Him, you believe in Him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls."
